Eleven NCS Football Players Earn Spots on VISAA All-State Team

ROANOKE, VA (December 19, 2013)— North Cross School football team members earned 11 spots on the VISAA Division III All-State team. North Cross was the most represented school on the First Team in its division.

Junior quarterback and linebacker Max Revercomb '15, the team's 2013 MVP, earned First Team recognition on both offense and defense. Max threw for 1686 yards and 19 touchdowns while also recording 10 tackles for loss and four sacks. Senior Penn Draper '14 occupied four spots on the list, including an astounding three First Team selections as a defensive back, punter, and kicker. He was also a Second Team wide receiver selection.

Fellow seniors Kyler Stemen '14 and Andrew Proctor '14 were also First Team selections. Stemen, a two-year starter, earned First Team honors as an offensive lineman. Proctor was named a First Team defensive back for the second consecutive year after leading the team with 61 solo tackles (105 total).

North Cross also claims the only two sophomores on the First Team list. Jordan Lowery '16 was named First Team wide receiver for the second consecutive year after leading the team with 554 receiving yards and six receiving touchdowns, while Davis Call '16 was named a First Team defensive lineman with his team-leading 117 total tackles.

Newcomers Ryan Dent '15 and Isaiah Harris '15 made a big impact in 2013 and their accomplishments earned them spots on the All-State First Team. Dent, a junior running back, accumulated 26 total touchdowns and averaged more than eight yards per carry. Harris, also a junior, was named a First Team kick returner and was also an Honorable Mention honoree at running back and punt returner.

All five North Cross seniors were recognized on the All-State list as defensive lineman Jimmy Coles '14 and defensive back Harrison Call '14 each earned Honorable Mention honors. Coles recorded 16.5 tackles for loss in 2013 while Call made three interceptions and broke up a team-leading six passes.
