

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

2019-20 Schedule of Fees

Tuition and Tuition Ranges

Annual tuition, without need-based adjustment, is the highest of the range shown in the tables below. With need-based adjustments, the tuition a family will pay per child will fall between the minimum and the full annual tuition illustrated in the chart below.

Grade		Tuition Range (see note above)	Fees*
Grades 6 - 8 (Middle School)		$7,500 – $17,840	Per course schedule selected
Grades 9 - 12 (Upper School)		$7,500 – $19,340	Per course schedule selected
Dormitory Cost	7-Day	$7,500 – $21,000	Includes room, evening and weekend meals, and dorm activities
	5-Day	$5,000 – $16,000
Transportation Fee		$1,000	Includes daily transportation to and from the dormitory in the morning, afternoon, and evening.

* Tuition includes classroom equipment and supplies, library materials, music and art materials, global language materials, intramurals, Symposium (Grades 8-12), technology, standardized testing, classroom field trips, and yearbook. Not included in tuition are student specific costs and fees. In addition to school dress code clothing, families need to budget for the following outside tuition: In grades 6-12, students will need to purchase iPads and the student and any course-specific online books required. In the Upper School, there will be charges above tuition such as course fees, books, lab fees, art classes, and AP testing fees. North Cross does not have athletic fees, but there may be charges associated with overnight stays for teams who travel.
